

MAYSVILLE, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, JULY 24, 1914.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

All Over

Oh, the cat and the canary,
He forgot to feed the twain.
Down town he got anxious, very,
And went rushing home again.

Yes, he reached home in a hurry.
All was silent in the flat.
Seems he might have saved his worry,
The canary fed the cat.

Miss Stella Archdeacon is visiting in Newport and Cincinnati.

Miss Elizabeth Barbour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Barbour, left last night for a visit to her aunt, Miss Florence Hays, at Tonaluko Farm, Va.

Miss Bessie Johnson left last night for a visit to friends in the Virginia Mountains. She will be joined on August 4th by Miss Ethel Owens and both go for a sojourn at Virginia Beach.

Miss Elizabeth Reed, the accomplished stenographer in the First National Bank, left last night over the C. & O. for a visit of several weeks at Sweet Calabate Springs, Virginia, where she will enjoy a much needed rest.

MORE INCREASED PENSIONS FOR KENTUCKIANS.

Washington.—Pension legislation in the Senate—so far as this session is concerned—was completed when the body passed, without debate, the four remaining omnibus Invalid Pension Bills. In doing so it made a record for passing pension bills for a single session. Since last December—the beginning of the present session—the Senate, with the House concurring, has passed thirty-seven omnibus pension bills embracing 3,500 individual bills.

Kentucky items contained in the bills passed today and referred to conference follow:

Jesse B. Smith, of Williamsburg, $12; Eliza P. Greenwood, of Diamond Springs, $20; Lewis Zinn, of Sablett, $30; Annie M. Maratta, of Covington, $20; Allen Farley, of Tomahawk, $24; Thomas J. Clark, of Savoyard, $30; John Breeding, of Booneville, $40; John M. Tyree, of Grayson, $30; John P. Tomlinson, of Fulton, $30; Henry Moonenhan, of Fulton, $30; John K. Caldwell, of Franklin, $30; J. E. O'Dell, of Lewisburg, $12; Alwilda Wheeler, of Maysville, $20; William Marshall, of Swampton, $50; Mollie Thompson, of Crallhope, $12; Henry Brandenburg, of Nicholasville, $30.

BUILD YOUR HOUSE NOW!

If you are contemplating building a home or a house for an investment, now is the time to place your order. We have the largest stock of all kinds of building material that can be found in Northern Kentucky and have large contracts with the timber men for still greater supply. We contracted this large supply at a price very near cost of production and we are in position to give you the advantage of this good purchase. Place your order now or let us give you an estimate on your requirements; you will then leave your order with Maysville's Foremost Lumber Yard.

BLOUSES At Less Than Half Price

Just when hot weather demands so many blouses we make another price cut in two lines. The dollar waists were reduced to fifty cents earlier in the season and we now offer the remaining lot at 39c each. Nearly all sizes are included. Two styles—one, striped white flaxon, tailored. The other, white lawn embroidered and trimmed in lace. Both styles low neck, short sleeves.

The $1.25 and $1.50 blouses reduced earlier to 75c are now 50c. Two styles—white voile embroidered in Persian collars, low neck finished with velvet bow, sleeves short.

The other style, semi-tailored herringbone flaxon, low neck, short sleeves finished with blue or rose voile piping.

Other blouse reductions include smart models in white voile at 85c from $1.25, size 34.

Blouses of imported white crepe embroidered in colored silk flowers. Sleeves finish and fancy pointed collar of white net. Reduced from $2.25 to $1.75. Not many.

MR. J. H. COCHRAN SELLS HIS IDAHO RANCH

Mr. J. H. Campbell, who has been the guest of Mr. James H. Cochran at the White Hall Hotel for the past week, returns to his home in St. Anthony, Idaho, well pleased with Maysville.

This is Mr. Campbell's first trip East in 29 years, and while here closed a deal with Mr. Cochran whereby he becomes owner of Mr. Cochran's 480-acre ranch north of St. Anthony.

Mr. Campbell speaks in the highest terms of Maysville, its hotels, and public buildings, streets, etc.

SENATOR JOHNSON N. CAMDEN HERE

Senator Camden, who was appointed by Governor McCreary to fill out the unexpired term of the late lamented Senator W. O. Bradley, paid his first visit to Maysville yesterday and was given a royal greeting by his many supporters who are boosting him for the short term.

Senator Camden is a wealthy and progressive citizen of Fayette County, and is especially interested in farming and stock raising. He owns one of the finest stock farms in the Blue Grass State and is a representative Kentuckian.

He left his lithograph in hundreds of 63 windows.

All the cities in the Middle West suffered from exceedingly high temperatures.

BROWN COUNTIANS AT CONEY ISLAND

Yesterday morning, local editor T. J. Gurrey, in company with seventy-five others boarded the good steamer Greenland at 5:30. The steamer was all that could be desired in the way of an excursion, the Captain had prepared for 600, but right here is where the advertising end of the reunion lost out.

Very few in Maysville and Aberdeen were aware of the magnitude of the reunion.

The steamer made stops at Ripley, Levanna, and Higgsport. From there it was a direct run to Coney Island. The excursionists ate their lunches on the steamer and just at 12 o'clock the Island Queen landed her second load of over 1,500 Brown County people. Everywhere on the grounds Brown County was in evidence.

It is a day long to be remembered by the writer for the numerous friendships renewed.

COVINGTON CHAUFFEUR

Marries Daughter of Wealthy Illinois Meat Packer.

Alton, Ill., July 23.—When Mr. and Mrs. Julius Haas left Alton, accompanied by their daughter Hattie, in an automobile driven by William A. Sanier of Covington, Ky., on an overland trip to Milwaukee and Minneapolis, they did not know the man at the wheel was their son-in-law. Whether they have been enlightened on route is not known in Alton.

Miss Haas, whose father is a wealthy meat packer and property owner of Alton, accompanied Sanier to St. Louis, Monday, and they were married by Rev. Stephen J. Brady, of St. John's Catholic Church.

Their marriage was the culmination of a romance which began with the chauffeur teaching Miss Haas how to drive the Haas automobile.
